Bill had a dream last night. In his dream, he ate a delicious breakfast. After breakfast, Billy went to the pond and started fishing.

After a while, Bill caught a fish. The fish was cute so he wanted it to be his pet.

When Bill arrived home, he put the fish into the goldfish bowl with water carefully. He fed the fish with some fresh earthworm because he wanted the fish to grow up quickly.

Suddenly, the fish turned into a large snake. It broke the goldfish bowl. Bill felt frightened because it looked so vicious.

At last, Bill quickly ran to a magic store and bought some magic potion. He poured the magic potion on the snake and it turned into a puppy.

In the end, Bill heard, "Bill, wake up! It's time to go to school." Bill noticed that it was a dream so he shouted, "Oh no! It's eight o'clock now! I'm late!"
